THE PREFACE.

THE usual Reason which Men assign for their not coming so often to the Holy Sacrament as they would do, is their Fear of Eating and drinking unworthily, and consequently, of incurring their own Damnation thereby: The Design then of this short Discourse is, to shew what that Sacramental Preparation is, which is absolutely necessary to qualifie Men for a worthy participation of the Lord's Supper, that so Men may come without the least Fear of Eating and Drinking Damnation to themselves: For which Purpose I conceive no Rule, no Instruction more safe, easy, and instructive than that of our Church Catechism, which I have endeavour'd to explain, and to accommodate for the Use and Benefit of the meanest Capacity.

The concluding Part of this Discourse contains Prayers and Meditations preparative to a Sacramental Preparation; and tho' they be few in Number, yet I hope they fully answer all those several Parts of a Communicant's Duty, according to that Rule and Standard which our Church has fix'd for our Guide and Companion to the Holy Altar. By the Addition of those Psalms and proper Lessons annex'd to each particular Prayer and Meditation, the Communicant may enlarge his Devotions to what Degree or Length he pleaseth; thro' which Method you have as much Matter for actual Preparation in this little Book, as in any other Discourse of this Nature whatsoever.

6 A Companion to the Altar.

Ratification of our Baptismal Covenant, wherein God for his part hath faithfully promised Pardon and Remission of Sins to all true Penitents, and we for our parts are therein solemnly bound to be faithful and obedient unto him, 2 Tim. 2. 19. Before then we can promise to our selves any Benefit or Advantage from the Participation of this solemn Rite and Covenant between God and us, we must endeavour (what in us lies) to possess our Souls with all those Divine Qualifications which this Sacrament of the Lord's Supper requires, to render us worthy Partakers thereof.

And what those are, is the Design of this Discourse, wherein I shall endeavour to shew what that Preparation of Heart and Mind is, which must dispose us for a worthy Participation of the Blessed Sacrament: And herein I hope to remove all those Fears and Scruples which arise in our Minds, about Eating and Drinking unworthily, and of incurring our own Damnation thereby, as groundless and unwarrantable; and to do this, I shall take occasion to explain that part of our CHURCH CATECHISM, designedly intended for our Instruction, with relation to this Duty of a Sacramental Preparation, viz.

Q. What is requir'd of them who come to the Lord's Supper?

A. To examine themselves whether they repent them truly of their former Sins; stedfastly purposing to lead a new Life, have a lively Faith in God's Mercy, thro' Christ, with a thankful remembrance

A Companion to the Altar. 7

membrance of his Death, and to be in Charity with all Men. This is that Sacramental Preparation which our Church ( in as few Words as is possible ) hath provided for our Companion, or Guide to the Holy Altar. The Duty then of a devout Communicant consisteth in these six following Particulars: 1. Self-Examination, to examine themselves, 2. Repentance towards God, whether they repent them truly of their former Sins. 3. Holy Purposes, or Resolutions of a new Life, stedfastly purposing to lead a new Life. 4. Faith in God's Mercy thro' Christ, to have a lively Faith, &c. 5. A thankful Remembrance of his Death. 6thly and lastly, Unfeigned Love, or Charity for all Mankind, and to be in Charity with all Men.

The first Part then of a Communicant's Duty is Self-Examination: A Duty not only enjoyned by Human Authority, but likewise commanded by St. Paul. But let a Man examine himself, and so let him eat of that Bread and drink of that Cup, 1 Cor. 11. 28. Intimating, that no Man should presume to eat of that Bread, and drink of that Cup, without a previous Preparation, if he mean to escape that same Judgment or Condemnation which these Corinthians brought upon themselves for their irreverent, sinful, and disorderly Behaviour at this Sacrament; and this was the Occasion of St. Paul's Caution and Reproof: He that eateth and drinketh unworthily, ( says the Apostle ) eateth and

Corinthians; which I believe no Man ever
was, or would be suffer'd to approach the Lord's Table after such a disorderly Manner as they did, if Men were so lewd and profane.

But that our Preparation may be so well perform'd by us as to prevent the like Danger, let us (as the wise Man adviseth) Remember the End, and we shall never do amiss.
 Eccl. 7. 36. First then, that we may come to this heavenly Feast holy and adorned with the wedding Garment, Mat. 22. 11. we must search our Hearts and examine our Consciences, not only till we see our Sins, but until we hate them, and instead of those filthy Rags of our Righteousness, we must adorn our Minds with pure and pious Dispositions; even that clean Linnen, the Righteousness of the Saints.

Celestial Company, which are to be met with at this Solemnity. Secondly, Another End or Design of this strict Preparation, is, That we may be accepted of by God as worthy Communicants; That he who knoweth the Secrets of all our Hearts, neither is there any Creature that is not manifest in his Sight, but all things are naked and open'd unto the Eyes of him with whom we have to do. Jer. 17. 10. Heb. 4. 13. may approve of the Sincerity of our Repentance; and the King, who comes in to view the Guests, Mat. 22. 11. may (tho' strictly speaking we are not so) count us worthy of his Favour and Countenance. And how to obtain so great a Blessing, these following Instructions will help and assist us.

First, We are directed to repent us truly of all our former Repentance, Sins. This is that Preparation which Christ himself requires of us, Mat. 3. 2, 3. A Duty, you know, which our sinful Lives makes always necessary for our Consideration, if ever we expect eternal Happiness hereafter, Luke 13. 2, 3. But more especially, the Dignity of this Sacrament requires that it should be enquired into with more than ordinary Care and Circumspection, because without sincere Repentance we cannot expect any Benefit or Advantage from the Death and Passion of Christ, which in this Sacrament we commemorate, and have the Merits of it conveyed to us by this sacred Memorial. Supposing then that this is sufficient to convince you of the Necessity and Importance of this Duty, that upon it depends our Welcome or Rejection, to or from this Heavenly Feast, unto which you are called. I proceed now in the Second place to inform you, That if your Repentance or Return to God be real and sincere, it will produce these following good Effects in us.

First, A Sense, a Sorrow and The Nature Confession of all our former Sins, of a true Secondly, A stedfast Purpose or Repentance. Resolution to lead a new Life.

These are the genuine Fruits of a true Repentance, and must always accompany our Return to God, if we hope to have it effectual to our Salvation. And,

First, We must labour to gain a Sense or Sight of all our former Sins and Wickedness; this will readily present itself to us by comparing our Lives and Actions by the perience will convince us, that there is no way more likely to discover our Iniquities, and to humble our selves for them, than a serious Application of God's Word to our crooked Paths; and this Duty of Self-Examination is never more properly applied to, than when we intend to receive the Holy Communion; for, unless we see the Number, and apprehend the Heinousness of our Offences, and fear the Vengeance due unto us for them, we are altogether unfit for the Commemoration of his Death, who died for our Sins, and rose again for our Justification. It's the Sense and Sight of Sin, that must shew us the Need and Necessity of a glorious Redeemer, and what Obligations we are under to bless and praise God for our Salvation by his Son JESUS CHRIST. Of such great Use and Advantage is this Duty of Self-Examination, at all times, that Pythagoras, in those Golden Verses which go under his Name, particularly recommends the same to his Scholars. Every Night before they slept, he enjoins them to examine themselves what Good they had done, and wherein they had transgressed. Run over these Things (saith he) and if you have done Evil, be troubled; if Good, rejoice. This Course, if daily followed, as is suggested by Hierocles, his excellent Commentator, perfects the Divine Image in those that use it. Plutarch, Epictetus, Seneca, and the Emperor Marcus Antoninus, agree in recommending

12 A Companion to the Altar.

mending the same Practice by their own Example, but especially holy David, I thought on my Ways, and turned my Feet unto thy Testimonies. Ps. 119. 59. And this Method, no doubt, is an admirable Means to improve us in Virtue, and the most effectual Way to keep our Consciences awake, and to make us stand in awe of our selves, and afraid to sin, when we know beforehand that we must give so severe an Account to our selves of every Action. And when we are employing our Minds in this Duty of Self-Examination, before the Communion, or at any other time, we must discharge it as impartially as is possible for us, judging as severely of our own Actions as we would do of our greatest and worst Enemy; or otherwise we shall but flatter and deceive our selves in a Matter of the greatest Weight and Importance, viz. Of knowing the State and Condition of our own Souls. But if our Enquiries are just and true, we shall then plainly discover wherein, and how often we have gone astray and done amiss. We shall, by the faithful Discharge of this Duty, bring to light all our ungodly, unjust and uncharitable Actions; all our vain and filthy Speeches; all our wanton, proud and covetous Thoughts. Such a strict and impartial Examination will discover to us that accursed Thing Sin, Deut. 7. 26. which has defiled our Nature, made God our Enemy, and will exclude us the Kingdom dom of Heaven, if not repented of, 1 Cor. 6. 9, 10. But by such a severe Scrutiny as this, we shall soon perceive the Number of our Transgressions, what vile Wretches and grievous Offenders we are; how often we have broken our most serious Vows and Resolutions, especially after the Receiving the Holy Sacrament, and in Times of Sickness and Distress: Such a Sight, and such a Prospect of Misery as this, should excite in us a hearty Trouble and Sorrow for Sin; especially if we cast an Eye upon the final Issue and Consequences of it with respect to the World to come. Upon the Ungodly (saith holy David) God will rain Snares, Fire and Brimstone, Storm and Tempest; this shall be their Portion to drink. Psal. 11. 7. Great Plagues remain for the Ungodly, Indignation and Wrath, Tribulation and Anguish upon every Soul of Man that doth Evil, Rom. 2. 8, 9: The Wicked shall be turned into Hell, and all the People that forget God. These and many other such like Texts of Scripture may give us some Idea or Notion of the deplorable Condition of the Wicked in a future State, and of God's Hatred against Sin: And is not this then, without multiplying Arguments, sufficient to affect us with great Grief and Sorrow, when we consider that so long as we live in a vicious Course, so long are we exposed to all those Plagues and Torments which God hath in store for wicked Men, and will most certainly tainly be their Lot and Portion, if not prevented by a timely Repentance.

14 A Companion to the Altar.

Contrition. The Second Part of a true Repentance is Contrition, or a sorrowful bewailing of our own Sinfulness in Thought, Word and Deed. When we call to mind the Sins and Follies of our past Lives, and the Dangers we are like to fall into, surely we cannot be otherwise affected than sensibly grieved with the Thoughts and Apprehensions of our present and approaching Misery. The Sorrows of David, and the Repentance of St. Peter, 2 Sam. 12. Luke 22. shewed themselves in Floods of Tears, and were too big to be confined within: But our Hearts are generally so hard and unrelenting, that we sin against God, and lose our own Souls without so much as a Sigh or Tear. I know that the Tempers of People are different; some can shed Tears upon every slight Occasion, and others cannot weep tho' their Hearts are ready to break for Grief; and therefore we are not to judge of the Sincerity of our own, or other Peoples Repentance by such Signs and Tokens, nor are Tears always necessary to Repentance, tho' they very well become us, and the least we can do when we have done amiss, is, to be sorry for it, and to condemn our Folly, and to be full of Indignation and Displeasure against our selves. I will declare my Iniquity, (saith holy David) and be sorry for for my Sin, Psal. 38. 18. Especially if we have been very wicked, and have multiplied our Transgressions, and have continued long in an evil Course, have neglected God, and have forgotten him Days without Number, then the Measure of our Sorrow must bear some Proportion to the Degrees of our Sins; if they have been as Scarlet and Crimson, Isa. 1. 18. that is, of a deeper Dye than ordinary, then our Sorrow must be as deep as our Guilt: If not so great, we ought to shew so much Trouble and Contrition of Spirit as to produce in us a penitential Confession of all our former Sins.

Which is the Third Pro. Confession
perty of a sincere Repentance. of Sin.

I will acknowledge my Sin unto thee, (saith the Prophet David) and mine Unrighteousness have I not hid; I said I will confess my Sins unto the Lord, and so thou forgavest the Iniquity of my Sin. Psal. 32. 5.

Which Confession of Sins must not be in general Terms, that we are Sinners with the rest of Mankind, but it must be a special Declaration to God of all our most heinous Sins, in Thought, Word and Deed, with all their several Aggravations, laying open our Sores to our heavenly Physician; and this must we do to shew that we condemn all our former evil and vicious Courses, with a full Purpose and Resolution of Mind ( by God's Assistance )

that

16 A Companion to the Altar.

that we never intend to do the like again. Unless this be done, our Sorrow for Sin, and the Confession of our Wickedness can never profit us in the Sight of God, if it be not joined with a firm Resolution of leading a New Life.

A New Life.

Which is the Fourth and most essential Part of a sincere Repentance, and the only Condition of finding Mercy with God. He that covereth his Sins shall not prosper, but whose confesseth and forsaketh them, shall have Mercy, Prov. 28. 13. Let the wicked Man forsake his Ways, and the unrighteous Man his Thoughts, and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him, and to our God, and he will abundantly pardon. Isa. 55. 7. I tell you nay, (saith Christ) but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish, Luk. 13. 3. Repent ye therefore and be converted, that your Sins may be blotted out. Acts 3. 19. Those preceding Parts of Repentance before - mentioned, are only preparative to this, that which must compleat and finish the Work of a new Convert, is to become a new Creature, to turn from our evil ways and to break off our Sins by Righteousness. This certainly must be the Desire and Intention of all Communicants, if they hope or expect any Benefit or Advantage from this solemn Rite or Covenant; for he that comes with a Design or Intention of continuing in his former Sins, comes somewhat like unto Judas, that came, and received, and at the same time continued his Resolution of betraying his Master. That which makes a Man absolutely unfit to receive the Holy Sacrament, is, the living in the constant and habitual Practice of any known Sin, without the least Desire or Intention of Repentance or Amendment. Such a Man's Approach to the Holy Table, no doubt, is to eat and drink his own Damnation, since it's a plain mocking of God, and a great Contempt and Abuse of his Divine Authority. We must therefore (by the Help and Assistance of God's Grace) resolve to lead a new Life, following the Commandments of God, or otherwise our former Examinations will appear but slight and superficial, our Sight and Sense of Sin trivial and indifferent, our Sorrow and Contrition of Spirit forced and hypocritical, and our Confessions odious and formal. Therefore examine well the Sincerity of your Repentance and Resolutions, that you neither deceive God nor your selves: Him you cannot, because he is a Searcher of the Heart, and a Discerner of the Thoughts, nor will he accept of any thing which is not hearty and unfeigned.

Not that we are to suppose that this Sacrament of the Lord's Supper doth require perfect Obedience in all our Addresses to the Holy Altar, or that none

No absolute Obedience expected after the Holy Sacrament.

18 A Companion to the Altar.

must come, but such as are in a sinless State of Perfection. No, this were impossible, because, there is no Man which liveth and sinneth not; for, who can say, I have made my Heart clean, I am pure from my Sin; and that even the just Man falleth seven times a Day. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is not a converting, but a confirming Ordinance, intended to preserve and encrease that Spiritual Life and Grace which we received at our Baptism, so that when we come to the Holy Communion, we come thither for fresh Supplies of Grace and Goodness for the strengthening and refreshing of our Souls in all Holiness and Virtue: As our natural Bodies are fed and nourished with those Elements of Bread and Wine, the same Effect is wrought in the Soul, in the inward Man, by these Holy Mysteries, as is in the outward Man, by Bread and Wine; Bread being the Staff of Life, and Wine the most sovereign Cordial (when taken in due Proportion) to chear and rejoice the Heart. And thus our Souls, by this Sacrament, are fortified and strengthened with Grace, Wisdom, Courage, and all other Spiritual Gifts, to keep us thro' Faith unto Salvation. Both the Comfort and Benefit of it are great; the Comfort of it, because it does not only represent to us the exceeding Love of our Saviour in giving his Body to be broken, and his Blood to be shed for us, but it likewise seals to us all those Blessings and Benefits which are purchased urchased, and procured for us by his Death and Passion, viz. The Pardon of Sin, and Power against it. The Benefit of frequent Communion is also of as great Advantage, because hereby we are confirmed in all Grace and Goodness, and our Resolutions to live in Obedience and Conformity to God's Laws are strengthened, and the Grace of God's Holy Spirit, to do his Will, is hereby convey'd to us. It is the sovereign Remedy against all Temptations, by mortifying our Passions, and by spiritualizing our Affections. In a Word, it's the likeliest Method to make our Bodies the Temples of the Holy Ghost, and to prepare our Souls for the Enjoyment of God to all Eternity.

And if at any time, thro' Ignorance, Surprize, or Relapses after the Violence of any other Receiving, not Temptation, we should dangerous. fall into those very Sins which we have repented of, and vowed against, when we were at the last Sacrament, yet these Relapses should not make us afraid of coming again, since we have always the Benefit of Repentance allow'd us; if after a Relapse we repent and renew our Resolutions with a hearty Grief and Contrition of Spirit, we are made whole as before. If the Wicked (saith God) will turn from all his Sins that he hath committed, all his Transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him.

20 A Companion to the Altar.

Ezek. 18. 21, 22. Sin no more, says our Saviour to the Woman taken in Adultery, and I will not condemn thee, John 8. 11. It is not the Commission of this or that great Sin that will utterly exclude us from God's Mercy and Forgiveness; for then, indeed, no Person could escape Damnation, because there is not a just Man upon Earth that doth Good and sinneth not. Eccl. 7. 20. but it's our living and dying without Repentance and Amendment that brings God's Wrath and Vengeance upon us. His Mercies are not limited, he will not only pardon us once or twice, but always upon our Repentance and Return to him. No Time, no Age, or Season, does he except against, but whenever the wicked Man turneth away from his Wickedness that he hath committed, and doth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his Soul alive, Ezek. 18. 27. Neither is there any Sin, tho' never so vile and heinous in its own Nature, but shall be remitted and forgiven, unless it be that against the Holy Ghost. All manner of Sins and Blasphemies shall be forgiven unto Men; but the Blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven, Mat. 12. 31, 32. And consequently, this Sin of Eating and Drinking Unworthily, in the worst Sense, cannot be a damning Sin, because God in the Gospel (for Christ's Sake) hath promised to forgive all our Sins, upon our Repentance, and therefore this of unworthy Receiving among the rest.

Some People, I remember, have been very much concerned and discomposed at their Devotions, upon the Repetition of some few Expressions contained in the last Exhortation to the Communion, viz. 'Of being guilty of the Body and Blood of Christ our Saviour, of eating and drinking our own Damnation,—Not considering the Lord's Body,—Kindling God's Wrath against us,—Provoking him to plague us with divers Diseases, and sundry kinds of Deaths. These are hard Sayings, and some of them too hard to be understood. But however, they are all avoided and escaped, by coming worthily, i.e. by Faith and Repentance. Therefore let not these terrible Expressions trouble you, or detain you from the Holy Communion: Repent and believe, and you are safe and secure from falling into any of those Dangers which these Sentences may seem to threaten you with.' So that the want of Preparation, as some Men have alledg'd, and in the Sense they generally take it, can never be a sufficient Plea or Pretence for their not coming to the Holy Communion; because, after our best and strictest Endeavours to prepare our selves, we profess, (before God and the Congregation) 'That we do not come to this Heavenly Table trusting in our own Righteousness, but in his manifold and great Mercies.' By these we are invited to come; and to the Mercy of God (thro'

There is nothing dreadful in this Sacrament, but to the wilful, impenitent and persevering Sinner, whose Condition is dreadful, and every Page in Scripture is terrible against such, whether they come or not ; but to the penitent and humble Soul nothing is so dismal or affrighting in this Holy Feast ; for there is none condemned for unworthy Receiving, but such who deserve it for continuing in their Iniquities, and thus Impenitence renders even their Prayers an Abomination unto the Lord. Tho' they never partake of the Body and Blood of Christ, they are in equal Danger with those who eat and drink unworthily ; nay, I might say in greater, because the one useth the Means in Obedience to our Saviour's Command, and the other willfully neglects that which would prevent his Damnation, if rightly considered, and timely applied to. The surest way, I say, to prevent our Damnation, is to receive the Sacrament more frequently than Men usually do, that by a constant Participation of this Spiritual Food of the Living Bread which comes down from Heaven, their Souls may be nourish'd in all Goodness, and new Supplies of God's Grace and

and take Holy Spirit may be continually derived to them for the purifying of their Hearts, and to enable them to run the Ways of God's Commandments with more Constancy and Delight than they did before. So that the true Consequence of Eating and Drinking Unworthily, should rather excite our Care and Diligence in this Duty, than delude us with false Reasonings, to such a Neglect as will certainly increase our Damnation; it being certain, that God will never cast any Man into eternal Flames for striving to do his Duty as well as he can. If there be first a willing Mind, (saith the Apostle) it is accepted according to that a Man bath, and not according to that he bath not, 2 Cor. 8. 12. Neither ought we to think so unworthily of the Son of God, who came into the World to save Sinners, that he would institute this Ordinance to be a Snare to entangle our Souls with. It was not ordained for Angels, or for glorified Saints; but for humble and penitent Sinners, to bring them home to God, it being a Seal of their Pardon, and a refreshing Declaration of our Heavenly Father's Readiness to forgive the chiefest Sinners for Jesus's sake, who graciously calls upon all who are wearied and oppressed with the Guilt and Burden of their Sins, to come to him and he will refresh them, Mat. 11. 28. Christ came not to call the Righteous, but Sinners to Repentance, Mat. 9. 13. selves most unworthy, are those very Persons whom Christ doth here call and invite to this Sacrament, when deeply sensible of their Unworthiness. Were we not Sinners, were we not conceived and born in Sin, we should not need such Means and Instruments of Grace as Sacraments are; but 'being by Nature born in Sin, and the Children of Wrath, we are hereby made the Children of Grace, and Inheritors of the Kingdom of Heaven.' They that are whole (saith Christ) have no need of a Physician, but they that are sick. This being the Case of all Mankind, with respect to their Spiritual Life; there is no other way to free our selves from this Death of Sin, but speedily to apply our selves to this Heavenly Physician, who came into the World to seek and to save those that are lost and ready to perish; and the very Sense of our own Unworthiness is of all other Arguments the best Qualification to recommend us to God's Favour and Mercy, since we know, that he resisteth the proud [and presumptuous Sinner] but never denies his Grace and Favour to the Humble and Meek. As often then as we come to the Holy Communion with such an honest and true Heart, as to exercise our Repentance towards God, our Faith and Hope of his Mercy, trust in Christ for the Forgiveness of our Sins, and our Love and Charity for all Mankind. Such a Temper and Resolution of Mind as this, will, doubtless, render us worthy Partakers of the Holy Mysteries, and to prevent us Eating and Drinking Damnation to ourselves. Nay, I further add, That any Person thus disposed or qualified, may come (if it should be required) at an Hour's Warning, as safely as he may come to Church and say his Prayers, or to hear a Sermon. The Dueness of Preparation doth not so much depend upon our setting aside so many extraordinary Days for the forcing our selves into a Religious Posture of Mind, as upon the plain natural Frame and Disposition of our Souls, as they constantly stand inclin'd to Virtue and Goodness thro' the general Course of our Lives. From whence I infer, that a Multitude of Men of great Business, or a Man's being Business, either deeply engag'd in the publick Affairs of this World, or private, are not hereby excused from frequent Communion.

Men of great Business, either deeply engag'd in the publick Affairs of this World, or private, are not hereby excused from frequent Communion.

istent with the Duties of Religion, provided we govern our Affairs by Christian Principles: For tho' such Men have not Leisure for so much actual Preparation, yet they may have that habitual Preparation upon which the great Stress ought to be laid in this Matter. Nay, even the conscientious Discharge of a Man's Duty in his Business, may be one of the best Qualifications to recommend him to God ; since every Man serves God when he follows his Calling with Diligence, and observes Justice and Honesty in all his Dealings ; and consequently, the greater Danger and Temptation he's exposed to thro' the Multiplicity of Business, the more need hath he of God's Grace and Assistance, which are abundantly communicated to us in this holy Ordinance : So that Men of Business, if they have any serious Thoughts of another World, ought more especially to lay hold on such Opportunities which secures the Salvation of their Souls ; for as they who have Leisure ought to Receive constantly, as the best Improvement of their Time ; so they that are engag'd in many wordly Affairs, ought to come the oftner to the Holy Communion, and learn how to sanctify their Employments. But to proceed.

festation in the Flesh; and if we enquire into the Cause and Reason of so much Mercy and Goodness to Mankind, no other can be given but the Riches of his Mercy, Eph. 2. 4. And if we further enquire how his Mercy became ours, the Answer is plain, It was thro' Christ, by whom all the Blessings of this Life, and those of a better, are purchased for us, and must be obtained thro' the Merits and Intercession of the Holy Jesus; by him we were redeem'd, and according to the Riches of his Grace we have obtain'd Remission of our Sins, and thro' him at last we shall be glorified.

A thankful Remembrance of his Death.

And to this our Faith we must join a thankful Remembrance of his Death, and of those Benefits which we receive thereby. Our gracious and merciful Lord (saith holy David) hath so done his marvellous Works, that they ought to be had in Remembrance, Ps. 111. 4. But especially this Work of our Redemption by Jesus Christ, which to forget were an Ingratitude baser and viler than ever Heathens or Publicans, the very worst of Mankind among the Jews, were known to be guilty of towards their Benefactors, Mat. 5. 46. Herein is Love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the Propitiation for our Sins, 1 John 4. 10. all other Mercies to us : Had there been no Redemption, our Creation had only made us capable of endless Torments, and it had been better for us never to have been born, than to inevitable Ruin ; which must have been our Lot and Portion, had not the Son of God, by his own Oblation of himself, once offered upon the Cross, made a full, perfect, and sufficient Sacrifice and Satisfaction to God for the Sins of the whole World. The Consequences of this Redemption are so infinitely great and valuable, that it as much surpasses our Understanding as it does our Merits. This we are to declare and to publish to all the World, what God had done to save Mankind from that Damnation which they had deserved, and to restore us again to that Happiness and Glory which we could never expect, or hope to enjoy, had not Christ died for us. O come hither and hearken, all ye that fear God, and I will tell you what he hath done for my Soul, Ps. 66. 14. Praise the Lord, O my Soul, and all that is within me, praise his holy Name ; praise the Lord, O my Soul, and forget not all his Benefits ; who forgiveth all thy Sin, and healeth all thine Infirmities ; who saveth thy Life from Destruction, and crowneth thee with Mercy and Loving Kindness, Psal. 103. 1, 2, 3, 4. With what Joy and Thankfulness then should every good Christian commemorate this exceeding Love of God in the Salvation of Sinners by Jesus Christ! This was the proper End and Design of this Institution, to perpetuate this wonderful Love of Christ in laying down his Life for us. Our Obligations Do this in Remembrance to a frequent of me, said our Saviour Communion. a little before his Crucifixion; which being a solemn Command of our Master and only Saviour thus dying for us, we cannot refuse Obedience hereunto, without being guilty of the most horrible Ingratitude and Contempt of his Divine Authority. He hath appointed it for a solemn Commemoration of his great Love to us in laying down his Life for us Men, and for our Salvation; and therefore he commands us to do it in Remembrance of him: And St. Paul tells us, that as often as we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we do shew forth the Lord's Death till he come. As for those Men then amongst us who profess themselves Christians, and hope for Salvation by Jesus Christ, not to pay Obedience to this his Command, is a downright Affront to his sacred Majesty; and he may justly upbraid us Christians, as he did once the Jews, Why call ye me Lord, Lord, and do not the Things which I say? How unworthy are we of that Salvation which he hath wrought for us, if we deny him so small a Favour, such a reasonable Request, as to commemorate his Death and bitter Passion once a Month, or Hitherto a Communicant hath been directed to set his Heart right towards God; but this is not all, he must proceed further, and enquire how it stands affected towards his Neighbour, since we are expressly forbidden, Mat. 5. 23, 24. to offer up any Gift or Oblation unto God, if our Hearts

Mens own Interest should oblige them to a constant Communion, because of its great Benefits.

Words of our Consideration of our own present and future Advantage might prevail with us to be more frequent at the Lord's Table than we usually are.

And to be in Charity with all Men.

are leaven'd with Malice, Hatred or Revenge. If thou bring thy Gift unto the Altar, and there rememberest that thy Brother hath ought against thee, leave there thy Gift before the Altar, and go thy Way, first be reconciled to thy Brother, and then come and offer thy Gift. Here you see that Christ prefers Mercy before Sacrifice. And it's generally agreed on by the antient Fathers, that these Words of our Saviour do directly point at this Sacrament, on purpose to oblige all Communicants to forgive all manner of Injuries, before they presume to eat of that Bread, or to drink of that Cup. And it's expressely said, Mat. 6. 14, 15. that our Prayers are not accepted, nor our Pardon sealed in Heaven, until such time as we forgive Men their Trespases; and to be sure we can never be welcome or worthy Guests at this Heavenly Feast, where Jesus the Saviour of Penitents and the Prince of Peace is spiritually present, unless our Repentance reconcile us to God, and our Charity to all Mankind.

And this Charity of the Charity to Heart, in forgiving of Injuries, must likewise shew itself by the Hand, in relieving the Wants and Necessities of the Poor. We read, that when this Sacrament was administer'd in the Apostles Days, that large Collections of Moneys were then gathered know, that they who minister about Holy Things live of the Sacrifice, and they who wait at the Altar are Partakers with the Altar: even so hath the Lord also ordained, that they who preach the Gospel should live of the Gospel, 1 Cor. 9. 13, 14. If we have sown unto you Spiritual Things, is it a great Matter if we shall reap your Worldly Things? Ver. 11. But we may justly complain with St. Basil, that we know some who will Basil Hom. fast and pray, sigh and groan, in Mat. 19. yea, and do all Acts of Religion which cost them nothing, but will not give one Farthing to the Poor: What Benefit is there (saith he) of all the rest of their Devotions?

And when the Communicant Prayer. has thus far advanced towards the Altar, in his Examination, Repentance, &c. he must not forget another excellent Preparative belonging to this Duty of communicating worthily, which altho' it be not mention'd in our Church Catechism, yet it is always implied, as a necessary Part of our Sacramental Preparation, i. e. Prayer, private and publick; a Duty upon which all our present and future Blessings depend, Mat. 7. 8. and 21, 22. And so near a Relation hath this Duty of Prayer with this Sacrament, that all those Blessings therein contained and promised, are only in return to our Prayers; and no doubt but that Man who makes a conscientious conscientious Practice of this Duty in his Closet, and at Church, can never be unprepared for this Sacrament, nor want a Title to God's peculiar Favour and Blessing; For the Eyes of the Lord are over the Righteous, and his Ears are open unto their Prayers, 1 Pet. 3. 12. The constant Exercise of Prayer, is the best Method to get the Mastery over our evil Inclinations and corrupt Affections, and to overcome our vicious Habits: It preserves a lively Sense of God and Religion in our Minds, and fortifies us against those Temptations that assault us; it spiritualizeth our Nature, and raiseth our Souls above this World, and supports us under the Troubles and Calamities of this Life *, by sanctifying such Afflictions; it leads us gradually to the Perfection of a Christian Life, and preserves that Union between God and our Souls, which feeds our Spiritual Life with Grace and Goodness; without it we in vain pretend to discharge those Christian Duties incumbent on us, or to prosper in our Temporal Affairs, which must have God's Blessing to crown them with Success. And as Prayer in general has these great Blessings and Advantages attending it, so give me leave

It is certain that the Turks, whom we call Infidels, go to their publick Devotions five Times every Day; and shall not they rise in Judgment against us Christians, who cannot afford to go once or twice a Day to God's House, when we have both Leisure and Opportunity? If Men shall be judged for every idle Word, to be sure they shall not pass unpunished for all the Neg-

To this Duty of servent Reading and Prayer the Communicant Meditation. should spend some Portion of Time in Reading and Meditation, to raise his Soul into a Devout and Heavenly Temper : The proper Office of Reading is, to gain Spiritual Food and Sustenance, and of Meditation to digest it. Those Divine Subjects, most proper for our serious Contemplation, on this solemn Occasion, I think, are our Saviour's Sermon on the Mount ; the Love of God in the Salvation of Sinners, thro' Jesus Christ ; Repentance, Faith, Charity, * Death and Judgment ; the happy Condition of a future State of Blessedness, and the miserable Condition of the Damned in Hell. These, and the like, as they offer themselves unto you should be meditated upon until some Sorrow of Mind, some Ardour of Devotion, some Act of Faith, some Flame of Love and Charity arise in your Souls.

Thus have I briefly represented to you both the Nature and Necessity of a Sacramental Preparation ; which in great Measure contains the whole Duty of a Christian's ian's Life, viz. Repentance towards God, Faith towards our Lord Jesus Christ, and Charity towards our Neighbour: And I also hope, whosoever among us will but endeavour to prepare themselves for the Holy Communion, according to the foremen-tioned Directions, may (by the Help of God) upon all Occasions, come to the Lord's Table without the least Fear or Danger of eating and drinking Damnation to themselves.

AND, now some People may censure this Discourse, as giving too great Liberty and Encouragement to approach the Lord's Table with less Preparation than otherwise Men would venture to do: But I know no Ground or Reason for any such Suggestion, if they im-throughout the whole: And to represent this Duty of frequent Communion otherwise than what the Church requires, is an Injury both to God and to our selves: And I dare affirm, that no Part of Divine Worship has suffered more on this Account, than that of the Holy Communion, Thousands of People not daring (in all their Life-time, tho' very are full of thy Majesty, and of thy Glory ; I the un-worthiest of all Creatures,

do here in all Humility of Soul and Body prostrate my self before thee, acknowledging my own Weakness and Insufficiency to do any thing that is Good or Well-pleasing in thy Sight ; and therefore humbly implore the special Influence of thy Grace and Holy Spirit, to further these my Endeavours for a worthy Participation of this Holy Communion of the Body and Blood of Christ, which he has commanded me to do in Remembrance of him, and of those Benefits which we receive thereby. Teach me, O Lord, the right Way, and lead me in the Paths of Holy Preparation, that I

Guest at this thy Heavenly Table; possess my Mind with a true Sense of the Greatness of this Mystery, and the Excellency of thy Mercy, in preparing this Table for our Spiritual Food: Inspire my Soul with pure and pious Dispositions, and instead of those filthy Rags of my Righteousness, cloath me with the Righteousness of the Saints, that my Heart may be a clean, tho' homely Receptacle for my Saviour, and fitted for the Society of that Celestial Company, which are to be met with at this sacred Solemnity, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. Our Father which art in Heaven, &c. See Psal. 23. 26. III.

A Prayer for the Gift and Grace of Repentance.

ALmighty and Eternal Lord God, who art of purer Eyes than to behold Iniquity, and hast more especially enjoin'd all those who compass thine Altar, to wash their Hands in Innocency, vouchsafe me unfeigned Repentance for my past Sins, a hearty Sorrow and Contrition of Spirit to lament my Sinfulness, and most firm and stedfast Purposes to lead a new Life. It is the Voice of thy wondrous Goodness and Mercy, That if the Wicked will forsake his Ways, and the unrighteous Man his Thoughts, thou wilt have Mercy upon him, and abundantly pardon him. O let thy Goodness (whereof I have had so great a share, and plentiful Experience) lead me to Repentance not to be repented

A Prayer before Self-Examination.

O Lord, thou that art the Searcher of all our Hearts; and a Discerner of the very Thoughts, and in whose Sight all Things are naked and open, be pleased to impart a Ray of thy Heavenly Light, to discover all the Sins and Infirmities of my past Life, and whatsoever else thou knowest wherein I have done amiss, that henceforward no secret Sin may lie undiscovered and corrupted in my Soul, that by examining my Life and Conversation by thy Law, the Rule and Measure of my Duty, I may understand the true State and Condition of my Soul, and from a just Sense and Sight of all my Transgressions, thro' the Assistance of thy Grace and Heavenly Benediction, I may be enabled to reform my Life, and to turn my Feet unto thy Testimonies, so faithfully to search and examine my own Conscience, that I may come holy and clean to that Heavenly Feast, and be received as a worthy Partaker of that Holy Table

TH O' I have not Atheistically denied the Being of a God, or wickedly renounced him by Apostacy, yet have I not loved, desired, and delighted in other Things more than in God? Or, have I not feared Men, and dreaded the Displeasure of the World more than God? Or, have I not trusted in Men, and relied upon the World, more than upon God? Have I not despaired of God's Mercy? Or, by presuming too much upon it, encouraged my self in Sin? Have I not been unthankful for Mercies received? Or, have I not ascribed the Glory and Honour of what I now enjoy to myself more than to God? ( Say ) God be merciful to me a Sinner, and lay not this (or these) Sins to my Charge. Repeat the same at the End of every Commandment.

Wo is me, that I should thus requite the Lord! O that my Head were Waters, and mine Eyes a Fountain of Tears, that I might weep Day and Night for my Sin! O gracious Lord, look on me as thou didst on the Apostle St. Peter, and let thy compassionate Look so pierce my stony Heart, that I may weep bitterly for my Sins; and produce in me that Godly Sorrow which worketh unto Salvation, not to be repented of, for Jesus's Sake. Be pleased, O Lord, to strengthen and confirm all these good Resolutions in me: And I heartily thank thee, O Heavenly Father, for calling me to the State of Salvation, thro' Jesus Christ my Saviour, who died for my Sins and rose again for my Justification; and I humbly beseech thee, for his Sake, to give me Grace to continue in the same unto my

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, who for the more Confirmation of our Faith and Confidence in thy Mercy, hast in thy Holy Gospel declared, That whosoever believeth in thy Son Jesus Christ, shall not perish, but have everlasting Life; and that this is Life eternal to know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent. Increase this Knowledge and confirm this Faith in me evermore, O let me not rest in a dead Faith, but that I may have such a lively Faith, as will shew it self by Love and good Works; such a victorious Faith, which may enable me to overcome the World, and conform me to the Image of thy Son Jesus Christ, in whom I believe! O grant me such a true Sense of thy infinite Mercy, shewed to Mankind in so much Misery, as may never depart out of my Mind. I stedfastly believe, O blessed Jesus, that thou didst suffer upon the Cross to save me, and all the World, from the Guilt and Punishment of our Sins. O give me that Grace, that I may die to Sin, and rise again unto Righteousness! Grant this, O merciful Father, thro' the same, thy Son Jesus Christ. Amen. See Psal. 19. 57. Eph. 2. 6, 11.

A Thankful Remembrance of the Death of Christ.

Behold, I do most affectionately, and with all the Powers of my Soul and Body, return my most hearty Praise and Thanksgiving for thy great Mercy and tender Compassion to me and all Mankind, in sending thine only Son into the World, to redeem us from Sin and Misery; and by his meritorious Death and Passion, to purchase for us Eternal Life. do or speak, desire or think any Thing but what is according to thy good Will. —

2. I Am thy Servant, O Lord, O give me Understanding, according to thy Word, that I may learn thy Commandments, and lay aside all Interest, beside that of Heaven. O sweet Jesu, Fountain of all Goodness, guide my Feet in thy Paths, and teach me to do thy Will: Disengage my Heart from all unprofitable Solicitude and vain Affectation; and tho' I live here upon Earth, yet raise my Affections on Things above. How sweet, O Lord, is thy Spirit, how pleasant to my Lips are the Words of thy Mouth! O that I could ever be mindful of them, to fulfil thy Laws; make me die daily to the World and all its Concupiscences, and let the Greatness of thy Love make all that is Earthly appear as nothing to me; protect me against mine Enemies, and in all Dangers appear in my Defence; make haste to help me, O God, and say unto my Soul, I am thy Salvation. Remember thou art my Father, and have Compassion on my poor distressed Soul, cloath it with all Virtues, and feed it with thy Grace, for it belongs to the Father to take care of his Children. In thee I live, sweet Jesus, for thy Sake I desire to die; both living and dying I will ever profess that thou art good, and that thy Mercy endures for ever.

3. O That I could now give thee, O Lord, all that Praise, Glory and Honour, with which the Angels and blessed Spirits glorifie thee in Heaven! But because I am unable to do this, accept at least this my Desire and good Will. Deliver me, O God, from every Thing that is contrary to thy Will, and be pleased so to dispose of my Soul as may be for thy Glory and Honour: I surrender my self into thy Hands, and entirely resolve to submit to that State of Life thou shalt please to appoint me, and if it be more for thy Honour that I suffer, I chearfully accept it, not my Will but thine be done. Let nothing be now my Comfort but thou, Lord Jesu, and nothing afflict me but my Sins, and whatever else is displeasing to thy Divine Majesty. O blessed Jesus, Life eternal, by whom I live, and without whom I die, grant that I may now be united to thee, and in the Embraces of thy Holy Love and Divine Will, I may rest for ever. When shall I see thee, O sweet Saviour! When shall I appear before thy Face! When shall I see thee in the Land of the Living! Till then I sigh and bewail my Banishment, desiring to be dissolved, and to be with Christ.

Praise the Lord, O my Soul, and all that is within me bless his Holy Name; for now I find the Mercy, the Peace, the Comfort and the Grace which flows from this Fountain of Spiritual Communion with Christ: Let all the World know what he hath done for my Soul: he hath rescued me, and many of these my poor Brethren, from the nethermost Hell; Wherefore I will love thee, O holy Jesu, more than I can express, and live and die in that most Holy Religion which thou hast revealed to me. O let me never pollute that Body, or defile that Soul, which the Saviour of the World delights to dwell in. O let no Oaths or Lying, Backbitings and Slandering, profane those Lips, no Obscenity or Intemperance pollute that Mouth.*

A Prayer against evil and perplexing Thoughts.

GO not far from me, O Lord my God, make haste to help me, for corrupt Imaginations are perpetually rising in my Breast, and innumerable Fears and Sorrows close me on every side. Be pleased, O gracious Lord, in this Perplexity to refresh my Soul with some speedy Comfort, scatter and disperse all these dark and sinful Thoughts which haunt my Soul, by shedding abroad the Light of thy Grace into my Heart, for in the Extremity of this my Grief, this is my only Hope and Comfort, that I can take Sanctuary in thy Goodness, repose my Confidence, and cast all my Care and Burthen on thee, who never failest them that call upon thee : Give me Patience under these Adversities, and a happy Issue out of all these Afflictions, both of Body and Mind, Turn thee unto me and have Mercy upon me, for I am desolate and in Misery, the Sorrows of my Heart are enlarged ; O bring thou me out of all my Troubles : Look upon my Adversity and Misery, and forgive me all my Sin. Let me not be confounded, for I have put my Trust in thee, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. See Psal. 6. 102. 34. 42. 43.

Upon Christmas-Day, and Seven Days after, you may add these to your other Devotions.

I Desire, O Lord, to bless and praise thine infinite Goodness, which took Compassion upon Mankind in his greatest Misery, and hast provided so admirable a Remedy, by sending thine only begotten Son, to recover our corrupt and degenerate Nature, and by the Purity of his Doctrine, and the Example of his Life, and the Sacrifice of his Death, to purchase eternal Happiness for us. Grant, O Lord, that thro' the Assistance of thy Grace and Heavenly Benediction, I may daily comply with those great Things which thou hast done and designed for my Salvation. Possess my Soul with Purity and Piety, and all other Christian Graces and Virtues, that living soberly, righteously and godly in this present World, I may hereafter dwell with thee, O Father of Mercies, and God of all Comforts, in those Mansions of Bliss and Glory which thou hast prepared for them that love thee. GLORY be to thee, O God the Father, for creating me after thine own Image, capable of loving thee, and enjoying thee eternally; for recovering me from a State of Sin and Misery, when I had lost and undone my self. — Glory be to thee, O God the Son, for undertaking the wonderful Work of Man's Redemption, for rescuing me from the Slavery of Sin, and the Dominion of Satan; for the accomplishing this miraculous Work of our Salvation, thou didst descend from Heaven, and didst put on the Form of a Servant, live a miserable Life, and die a painful and accursed Death. — Glory be to thee, O God the Holy Ghost, for those miraculous Gifts and Graces thou didst bestow upon the Apostles, and for those ordinary Gifts whereby sincere Christians in all Ages are enabled to work out their Salvation; for thy preventing and restraining Grace; for the subduing our Understandings and Affections to the Obedience of Faith and Godliness; for inspiring us with good Thoughts, and kindling good Desires in our Souls; for

A Thanksgiving after the Sacrament, to be said at Home.

THOU, O my God, hast comforted my Soul, thou hast strengthened and refreshed me with thy Blessings, and rejoiced my Heart with the Tokens of thy Love. grant this Favour ? It is not for my Merits, but because thou wilt be glorified in doing Good to the most unworthy ; thou hast this Day made me a happy Example of this thy Free Grace and Bounty. Grant me this Favour also, O my God, that thro' the whole Course of my Life I may give thee Praise and Glory ; that the due Sense of thy Mercies may make me unfeignedly thankful ; and that my Thankfulness may appear in a Care to walk before thee in Holiness, Sobriety and Righteousness all the Days of my Life.

A Prayer in private, after the Receiving of the Holy Communion.

O How plentiful is thy Goodness which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee, which thou hast prepared for them that put their Trust in thy Mercy ; even before the Sons of Men. I praise and magnify thy great and glorious Name, O Lord, for all those manifold Mercies and Comforts which thou hast bestowed upon me, ever since I was born. O Lord God, thou hast been my Trust from my Youth, by thee have I been holden up from the Womb ; my Praise shall continually be of thee ; but above all, Blessed, and for ever Blessed be thy Holy Name, for the Manifestation of thy Son Jesus Christ, the Fountain and Foundation of all our Happiness, and for feeding me this Day ( who am unworthy of the least of thy Mercies ) with the Spiritual Food of his most precious Body and Blood, Blood, to my great and endless Comfort. Enable me, O Lord, thro' thy gracious Assistance, to perform the Conditions of that Sacramental Covenant which I have this Day so solemnly renewed and confirmed in thy Presence, and at thy Table; that thro' the Strength and Power of that Heavenly Food, I have there been Partaker of, I may daily grow in Grace, and in the Knowledge of Christ Jesus, and abound in every good Word and Work. And subdue in me all those inordinate Lusts and corrupt Affections which war against my Soul; purifie my Mind from all evil Thoughts, bad Intentions, and evil Designs; and suffer not Pride, Vain-Glory, Self-Love, Malice, Hatred or Revenge, or any other Evil whatsoever, to reign in my mortal Body; but do thou keep it for ever in the Purpose of my Heart, faithfully to fulfil these my Baptismal Vows and Resolutions which I have now again renewed at thy Holy Table, that, by persevering in all Virtue and Holiness of Life, I may at length be an Inheritor of that infinite Happiness and Glory, which thou hast promised by Christ our Lord. Amen.

Comfort, unworthy Servant. I am not able of my gracious self to do or think any thing that is good or well pleasing in thy Sight. O let thy Holy Spirit continually guard me against those numerous Temptations which so strongly encounter me: Fix my inconstant thee alone, and nothing may ever appear desirable to me, in Comparison of a pure Heart and peaceable Conscience. *Teach me thy Way, O Lord, and I will walk in thy may fear thy Name. Make me to love thee (as I ought) above all Things, and let the Interest of thy Honour and Glory be always dearer to me than Gold or Silver, or any other Temporal Advantage; for thou, O Lord, art my Portion, thou art my only Rest, in thee alone is Fulness of Joy and true Satisfaction, and without thee

 when I shall find Rest unto my Soul, both

Almighty God, who dwelling in the highest Heavens, yet vouchsafest to regard the lowest Creatures here upon Earth, I humbly adore thy sacred Majesty, and with all the Powers of my Soul and Body, do exalt and praise thy Holy Name; for all the Mercies and Comforts of this Life, and for the Hopes and Assurance of a better; for protecting me from the Evils and Dangers of the Night past, and for bringing me safely to the Light of a new Day; continue this thy Mercy and Goodness to me, and as thou hast awakened my Body from Sleep, so raise my Soul from the Death of Sin unto a Life of Righteousness. Deliver me, O God, from the Evils of this Day, and guide my Feet in the Paths of Peace and Holiness, and strengthen my Resolutions to embrace all Opportunities of doing Good, and carefully to avoid all Occasions of Evil; especially
